Making Good.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon longotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

MARRIAGE ANNULLED.

The marriage of Miss Helen Maloney, of Philadelphia, to Arthur H. The young woman went through a marriage ceremony with Mr. Osborne before a justice of the peace in Mamaroneck, N. Y., in December, 1905, during which she gave the name of Helen Eugenie and Mr. Caborne gave the name of Herbert Ogden. There were two witnesses to the ceremony. After the Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-ail." It is only advised for woman's special aliments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

In October, 1907, she eloped with Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman, and they were marred in Mortreal. The couple went to England apparently with-out the knowledge of Miss Maloney's friends, and for a few weeks an act ve serrin for her was kept up by represent-atives of her family. As soon as her disstives of her family. As soon as her dis-spearance became known Mr. O dorne notified Mr. Maloney of the ceremony which had taken place two years before Both Mr. Clarkson and his wife returned to this country a number of weeks ago, and proceedings were instituted in behalf of the Maloney family to annul the mar-riage to Osborne. Mr. Osborne did not contest the act on, but put the facts before the referce. That official recommended to the court that the marriage be annulled, and yesterday Justice Mc-Oall effirmed that finding. The decree is interlocutory and does not become final for three months. The evidence was not made public.
